Every Town is a Sports Town is partly a history of ESPN, partly a memoir of Bodenheimer's long career with the network, and partly a set of tips for running a successful business. While fans of ESPN may have learned much of the company's history elsewhere, Bodenheimer recounts stories I had not seen anywhere else, especially on the busin Note: I read the hardcover edition.

Every Town Is a Sports Town: Business Leadership at ESPN ...

"Every Town is a Sports Town" is billed as appealing to sports fans, business readers, and corporate executives alike. That's a rather diverse group, even for allowing for the fact that the business types have been known to read the sports page first at times. So let's take a look at what we've got here, and see where it fits.
